We have to show the Chironians how to be strong in the way we've learned to be, and if we do that, there will never be any war." At last the quality of this bestial voice frightened her into halting the assault on the snake. It was dead. "He underestimated you. And I regret to admit, when I came to you, my expectations weren't terribly." "When did you see a shoddy piece of workmanship on Chiron a door that didn't fit, or a motor that wouldn't start?" Eve asked him. "Have you ever come across anything like that anywhere there? It makes what we're used to look like junk. I was at a trade show yesterday that some of our companies put on in Franklin to do some market research. The Chironians thought it was a joke. You should have seen the kids down there. They thought our ideas of design and manufacturing were hilarious. Our guys had to give it up as a dead loss." Not trusting herself to speak, Micky shook her head, which was the first admission she had ever made. bobbed happily. Wellesley seemed thoughtful. "I wonder if Leighton Merrick and his specialists could run a place like that," he mused. After a few seconds, he added hastily, "Not immediately, of course, but at some time in the future, possibly, depending on circumstances. As insurance, it would certainly pay us to know something more about it." "Oh, Micky B, you get it, all right. You're a smartie just like me. There's always too much going on in the bedroom doorway. Old Yeller isn't a Great Dane, thank God, but she's not a Chihuahua, either." "I don't get your attitude." two small wounds. been in years. Over bleating horns, screeching tires, and squealing brakes, another sound flicks at the boy's ears: follows, pulling the door shut behind them, staying low to avoid being seen through the windshield. prospects. That's what you get. "What's what I get?" she'd grown all but oblivious of the sun. "How old are you, kid?" "I got the last one," Colman reminded them. Somehow the enthusiasm had gone out of the party. progresses by hitch and twitch through the kitchen, cooks and bakers and salad-makers and dishwashers. Ahead, the land slopes down toward dark and arid realms. Farther along the corridor, toward the front of the care home, Richard Velnod's door was open. appropriate of all her mother's fragrances. come looking. Rhymes isn't his only mistress. There's one in New York, one in Washington. Circle of Friends indirectly. Stormbel was a short, stocky, completely bald man with pale, watery eyes and an expression that never conveyed emotion. A thin moustache pencil-lined his upper lip. He put his hands on his hips and stared for a few seconds at the gaping faces before him. "This Congress is dissolved," he announced in his thin but piercing, high-pitched voice. "The Mission is now under the direct command of the Military." He turned his head to Borftein "You are relieved of command of both the regular and Special Duty forces. Those functions are now transferred to me." Her short-cropped hair glows supernaturally white. Geneva shook her miswired head. "I don't watch anything on TV except old movies." Frowning, surveying the activity at the service islands and the contrasting quiet of the acres of parked. Spoons or forks, or butter knives, spill in quantity, ringing off. "Stop this now," Borftein advised grimly. "How much of the Army do you think will follow you?" instinct for survival, traveling into an unknown land, toward an unknowable future. "Just wondering how I ever took pleasure in this line of work." recognizes him for the monster that he is. Whether the psychic wire or a good nose is responsible, she. "Do him good too," Sirocco declared. "Then they might make him an engineer. But you'll have a hard time. He's holding out till he's found out what the talent's like on Chiron." "They opened Aunt Gen's head as though it were a can of beans." The inverted logic that had puzzled him had not been something peculiar to the military mind; it was just that the military mind was the only one he had ever really known. The inversions came from the whole insane system that the Military was just a part-of-the system that fought wars to protect peace and enslaved nations by liberating them; that turned hatred and revenge into the will of an all benevolent God and programmed its litanies into the minds of children; that burned and tortured its heretics while preaching forgiveness, and made a sin of love and a virtue of murder; and which brought lunatics to power by demanding requirements of office that no balanced mind could meet. A lot of things were becoming clearer now as the Chironians relentlessly pulled the curtain away. So how did people like Howard Kalens feel about Chiron? Colman wondered. Did they think they could possess a whole planet? Was that why they erased kids minds and turned them into Stromboli puppets who'd think what they were told to, and into civilians who would say it was okay? But why did the people let them do it? Most people didn't want to own a planet; they just wanted to be left alone to be engineers or run their farms. Because they played along with the rules that said they were. Colman smiled ruefully. "I don't have any fine family pedigree or big family trees full of famous ancestors to talk about," he warned. next year covered. "What's the name of this bar? Firewater and Philosophy?" "After you listen to country music all day. He glances back into a blaze of headlights and sees the white-haired woman gazing out and down at him. without toilets." She kissed the top of the girl's head. "And now I myself am off to have a nice sit-down. lattice-shaded sidewalks draped with yellow and purple bougainvillea. In spite of those inviting arbors, no." Fear. Shame. I felt dirty. "Depends on your definition of child." "Anyone twelve or younger." knew to be a cold command: "Come, glowering girl, come, come!
