THE SITUATION RESOLVED itself rapidly to leave Stormbel firmly in control of the Military, and the Canaveral shuttle base completely in Terran hands. Communications were restored by late afternoon, and some of the less pressing matters that had been put off while the Army was on alert began to receive attention. Among these was the clearing out of the Kalens residence and the removal of its more valuable contents to safer keeping. By dusk the driveway and parking areas around the house had accumulated an assortment of air and ground vehicles involved with the work details. Nobody paid much attention to the military personnel carrier that shouldn't have been there as it landed quietly on the grass just inside the trees by the rear parking area. "Sometimes names are destiny. Look at you. Two pretty names, and you're as gorgeous as a committee. And Micky said to Leilani, "Did he kill your brother, Lukipela?" "I'd be opposed," said Geneva, brandishing a carrot stick. Shirley turned to look at Ci. "Say, wouldn't he be great to have at our next party? I love things like that." She looked at Driscoll again. "When are you coming down to Chiron?" Bernard nodded and seemed relieved, but his expression was still far from happy as he turned toward Kath, who had moved away from the others, and was watching curiously. Bernard seemed to want to say something that he didn't know how to begin. Yet she had the curious and unsettling sensation of movement within, of a turning in her heart and mind. By contrast, this was holding-your-breath-at-a-seance silence, just before the ghost says boo. from those teeth, all related to the well-known fact that most serial killers are also cannibals. Although the serpent hadn't been poisonous, the bite looked wicked. The punctures were small. No. A few seconds of silence elapsed while the Chironians considered the suggestion. Their expressions seemed to say. it couldn't do any harm, but it probably wouldn't change very much. "Is the case strong enough to turn the whole Army round in a moment?" Kath asked doubtfully at last. "We have no proof about Padawski and the bombings. What you've said about Howard Kalens might result in some debate, but would it have sufficient impact on its own to convince enough people of how insane Sterm really is? Now, if we could prove all the incidents, all at the same lime." "It wouldn't have worked," Wellesley countered.
